

Dear colleagues,

The Cyprus Teachers of English Association (CyTEA) in collaboration with the IATEFL LTSIG, the Pedagogical Institute of Cyprus, and the University of Nicosia, is happy to announce its Annual Conference which will be held online, on the 27th-28th of November 2021 and is entitled 'Language teaching and the pandemic: a shift to a new era?'.

This is an International Conference on Language Teaching which aims to bring together leading academic scientists, researchers, and research scholars to exchange and share their experiences and research results on their experience concerning teaching and the pandemic/online teaching. The conference will also provide a premier interdisciplinary platform for researchers, practitioners, and educators to present and discuss the most recent innovations, trends, and concerns, as well as practical challenges, encountered, and solutions adopted during the pandemic.

The conference is an opportunity for teachers, teacher trainers, materials developers, researchers, and academics to share their work and experiences. We invite you to join our annual conference, promoting your work by submitting a proposal to present a talk or a workshop and share your work with colleagues.

Deadline for proposals: 15th September 2021. For information, you can visit our website at <https://cytea.weebly.com/>
